

105.1604

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312 / report

December 8, 1922. - Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the railroad station and boarded a train for New Brunswick, N.J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative proceeded to the Court House and attended the trial of Raymond Schneider. Several witnesses were placed upon the Stand during the day.

The testimony as given at the trial during the day did not bring forth anything which would lead to the solution of the Hall-Mills Murder.

After the charge to the Jury by Judge Day, and their retirement for a verdict, they returned within twenty minutes with a verdict of "guilty."

Upon leaving the Court House, Operative proceeded to the railroad station and boarded a train for New York City, and upon arrival at New York City, Operative discontinued.

COUPON B

MADE IN U.S.